

How to Home School

A Practical Approach

By Gayle Graham

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Section 1 – Foundation for Excellence

Chapter 1 – Why Home School?

- Individual Learning Difference
- Academic, Social & Emotional Benefits
- The Last Word

Chapter 2 – Planning for Success

- Organization
 - Taking Control of Household Chores
 - Management Tools for Home and School
 - Home Management Notebook
 - School Management Notebook
 - Child's Notebook
 - Planning and Goals
 - Covering All the Bases

Section Two – Language Arts

Chapter 1 – Reading – De-mystified

- Readiness
- Beginning Reading
- Rapid Development of Skills
- Wide Reading
 - Comprehension Skills
 - Vocabulary
- Refinement of Reading

Chapter 2 – Taking the Worry out of Writing

- Why Do We Write?/What Should We Write About?
- Developing and Coaching Young Writers
 - Easing into Writing
 - What's A Mother to Do?
- Mastering the Mechanics
 - Spelling
 - Handwriting
 - Grammar

Section Three – Pulling it All Together

Chapter 1 – Learning and Exploring Together

- Unit Studies – Take Your Time
- Bird Binge
- Real-life Learning
- Doubting Dad’s – “What About Standardized Testing?”
- Unit Study Advantages
- What to Include in a Unit Study
- Assessing Unit Study Curriculum Choices
- Record-keeping
- What About Social Studies and Science?
 - What’s Included in Social Studies
 - What’s Included in Science\

Chapter 2 – Math – The Home School Advantage

- Math Readiness
- Elementary Math
 - Computation
 - Place Values
 - Fractions
 - Time
 - Money
- Problem Solving
- Final Thoughts

Appendix A – Choosing Curriculum

Appendix B - Understanding Standardized Testing

Appendix C - Reproducible Forms

- Housekeeping
- Curriculum Scope
- Schedule Week at a Glance
- Coordinating a Number of Children
- Weekly Assignment Sheet
- Unit Study Plans
- Programs of Study
- Registry of Great Reading
- Yearly Goals
- Monthly Goals