

About the author of this book:

RALPH NADING HILL, a native Vermonter and a graduate of Dartmouth College, served in the Second World War as an officer in military intelligence. Since 1947 he has written four books for adults: The Winooski in the Rivers of America Series; Contrary Country; Sidewheeler Saga; and Window in the Sea. The writing of his other Landmark Book, Robert Fulton and the Steamboat, followed a tour of duty as president of the Shelburne Steamboat Company on Lake Champlain. For several years the Company operated the 220-foot sidewheeler Ticonderoga, now preserved ashore at the Shelburne Museum, of which Mr. Hill is a trustee.

About the illustrator of this book:

RICHARD M. POWERS was born in Chicago, studied art at the Art Institute of Chicago and at the University of Illinois. He began doing illustration work in New York after he was discharged from the Army in 1946. Since then he has lived and painted on Monhegan Island, Maine; in Dorset, Vermont; and in Croton Falls, New York. He has illustrated many children's and adult books, and has exhibited his paintings in New York City. He now lives in Ridgefield, Connecticut.