

Christian Education for the Real World

By Henry M. Morris

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Foreword to the Third Edition

Preface and Acknowledgements

Introduction

1. Biblical Principles of Education

The Spectrum of Education

Fallacious Concepts of Education

The True Foundation of Education

The Dominion Mandate

The Transmission of Truth (The Ministry of Teaching)

The Goals of True Education

2. The Creationist Framework of True Education

The Two Cosmogonies

Evolutionism in Modern Education

History of the Evolutionary World-View

The Origin of Evolutionary Philosophy

The Evidence for Creation

Importance of Creation Emphasis in Teaching

3. Humanistic and Super-Humanistic Education

Humanistic Emphases in Modern Education

Revival of Occultism Among Students

Spiritual Implications of Occult Revival

Naturalism, Occultism, and Human Nature

Biblical Evaluation of Human Reasoning
The Folly of Human Wisdom

4. Christ-Centered Education

The Edenic Mandate and Its Implications
The Bondage of Corruption
The Noahic Covenant
Present Status of the Noahic Covenant
Christian Research and Writing
Christ and True Knowledge and Wisdom
Spiritual Standards in the Curriculum

5. The Teaching and the Teacher

Principles of Curriculum Construction
Limitations on Course Content
Qualifications of Teachers

6. The Implementation of Christian Education

Teaching and Indoctrination
Scriptural Guidance on Teaching Methods
The Problem of Textbooks
Size of Classes

7. Christian Rules for Christian Schools

Biblical Considerations in Formulating Standards of Conduct
Biblical Moral Character: God's Eternal Law
Christian Choices: Basic Commitments
Administrative Arrangements and Requirements
Principles and Rules of Enforcement

8. The Need for Biblical Certitude

Education and the Evidence of Christianity

What is the Gospel?

The Defense of the Gospel

Why Teach Apologetics

Is Apologetics Effective in Evangelism

The Content of Apologetics

The Search for Truth

God's Mandate and Education

The Glory of the Word

9. The Christian and the Public School

Needs of the Public School

Christian Education in a Public School

The Two-Model Approach

The Religious Essence of Evolutionism

The Scientific Irrelevance of Evolution

Anti-Creationist Polemics

Theistic Evolutionism

10. True Education – Review and Conclusion

Appendix – The Problem of Accreditation

Indices

Index of Subjects

Index of Names

Index of Scriptures