

Feed My Lambs
Why the Lord's Table Should Be Restored to Covenant Children
By Tim Gallant

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface

Why Read this Book?

May You Read this Book?

How to Read this Book

Acknowledgements

Introduction

Recent History

John Calvin

Terminology

1. One Bread, One Body

Matthew 19: The Status of New Covenant Children

New Covenant Anticipation: The Impulse of Universalization

Jeremiah 31: breadth of benefits

Isaiah: stable generations

New Testament Confirmation

Galatians 3:27-28: universal inheritance

1 Corinthians 10:16-17: a universal table

1 Corinthians 7:14: the calling of the covenant children

1 Corinthians 12:13: sacramental parallelism

Marriage Supper and Lord's Supper

Circumcision and baptism

John 6: Sacrament and Reality

"Feed My Lambs"

2. A Passover Lamb for Little Lambs

Passover Participation in Exodus 12

Dependent upon catechization?

The Passover count

Passover and the stranger

Deuteronomy 16:16: Rights and Requirements

New Testament Evidence Concerning Passover Participation

Luke 2: did Jesus wait until age 12?

The numbering of the five thousand: a Passover count?

The Last Supper

Passover Requirements and Children

Passover in Jewish Practice

The Positive Case for Passover as a Household Benefit

Admission in Exodus 12

The 'feast in the wilderness'

The terms of Deuteronomy 12

Passover and the Lord's Supper: Relevance

The time and form of institution

Other New Testament connections

Lord's Supper and the other Old Testament meals

Lord's Supper and the Day of Atonement

Implications of the connection

3. Our Children and 1 Corinthians 11

Appeals Against Paedocommunion from 1 Corinthians 11

Exposition of Passage

Broader context

11:17-22: the problem

11:23-25: the reminder

11:26-27: implications of the Supper

11:28-32: the safeguarding of the Supper

11: 33-34 the outcome

4. Children at the Lord's Table in History

Contrary Evidence?

Second century Fathers

Origen

Paedocommunion in the Early Church

Justin Martyr

Cyprian

The Apostolic Constitutions

Augustine

Leo the Great

Which Comes First – Practice or Theology?

The Decline and Fall of Paedocommunion

The Hussites: An Attempt at Revival

Post-Reformation Period

The State of the Question Today

5. Objections Answered

I. Contrasts with Baptism

A non-covenantal sacrament?

An active sacrament

A sacrament of demand

A sacrament of communion rather than union?

Baptism and Lord's Supper: a pastoral assessment

II. Objections Based on Analysis of, or Comparison to, the Old Testament

Children may not approach the alter

Great Atonement, not Passover

New covenant intensification of standards

A sacrament only, not a meal

A disciplinary meal

The immature barred from meals requiring discernment

III. General Objections to Paedocommunion

Hints from the physical character of the Supper
Undermines catechesis?
Confession of faith required
Deferred citizenship rights
Nothing to be gained?
Faith versus superstition
Danger of a down-grade
Biological Christianity?

Conclusion

Conclusion

Appendix 1: The Covenant of Grace and its Children

The Relationship Between Old Covenant and New

The Covenant of Grace in the Old Testament

One covenant or many?
The seed of the woman
Theft of the seed of the woman
Noah: covenant of grace or 'covenant of creation?'
Abraham: recovery of the seed of the woman
Mosaic meals and the covenant of grace

The Covenant of Grace and the New Testament

You and your household

What About Romans 9?

Appendix 2: Consideration of Practical Issues

Paedocommunion and 'Small Change'

Covenant expectations and discipline
The sins of the fathers
Profession of faith

What About Infant Communion?

Paedocommunion and the Reformed Confessions

Prohibition and inference

The desirability of revision

Revision: an illustrative example

Hindrances to revision

Paedocommunion and Fathers

“I’m Convinced – But My Church Isn’t: What Now?”

Sanctified disagreement

Should my child make profession of faith?

Appendix 3: Brief Theses on Communion and Covenant Children

Bibliography

Original Sources

Books and Booklets on Paedocommunion

Papers, Articles and Audiocassettes on Paedocommunion

Denominational Reports

Biblical Studies and Doctrinal Works

Commentaries

Background Works & Other Resources

Scripture Index

Index of Names