

By What Standard?
An Analysis of the Philosophy of Cornelius Van Til
By Rousas John Rushdoony

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Foreword

The Author

Chapter

1. "Behold, it was Leah"
2. The Christian Philosophy of Knowledge
3. "The Emperor Has No Clothes!"
4. The Psychology of Religion: Integration into the Void
5. Ethics and the Chief End of Man
6. Apologetics and Self-Consciousness\
7. The Issue in Common Grace
8. The Image of God and Faceless Man
9. The Meaning of Inspiration
10. Dictation and Inspiration
11. The Authority of Scripture
12. The Self-Contained God
13. Christology and the Void
14. How Wide a Gospel?

Appendices

1. The Sons of Leah
2. Van Til and Amsterdam
3. Bishop Butler's Analogy
4. By What Standard?
5. Biographical Note
6. A Van Til Bibliography