

Match each set of children with a set of toys.

Concept: Match equal sets.

Introduction: Display several sets of one type of object, such as cubes, and several sets of another type of objects, such as counters. There should be matching sets of each type. Ask the child to find the pairs of sets that are equal.