

Wordsmith Craftsman

By Janie B. Cheaney

TABLE OF CONTENTS

To the Teacher
To the Student

Part 1: Writing Every Day

Take a Note

Study Notes and Outlines

- How to Take Notes
- Oral Sources
- Outlining

Personal Letters

- Thank-You Notes
- Keeping in Touch
- The Fan Letter
- Letters of Support
- Letters of Apology

Business Letters

- Letters Complaint
- Requests for Employment

Summaries

- How to Write a Summary

Business Reports

Part 2: Language Power

Paragraphs

- Paragraphs Principles
- Paragraph Types
- Paragraph Organization

Writing Techniques that Really Work!

- Use More Verbs – and Better Ones
- Let's Get Personal
- Be Specific (And Again I Say, Be Specific)
- Prefer Action Voices Over Passive
- Show, Don't Tell
- Cut the Verbiage
- Avoid Clichés (Like the Plague)

Steps Toward a Personal Writing Style

- Emphasis
- Making Transitions
- “Loaded” Words and Selective Detail
- The Importance of Being Honest

Practice and Review Exercises

Part 3: The Essay

- Essay Structure
- Where Do Ideas Come From?
- The Topic
- The Thesis Statement

Writing the Essay, Step By Step

The Descriptive Essay

The Narrative Essay

- The Introductory Paragraph

The Expository Essay

- Just the Facts Getting at the Truth
- Information Sources
- Writing the Expository Essay

A Word About Research Papers

The Critical Essay

The Persuasive Essay

- The Art of Persuasion
- Elements of Persuasion
- Writing the Persuasive Way

The Versatile Wordsmith Craftsman

Appendix

- Note-Taking Form
- Summary-Writing Form
- Answers for Exercises
- The Dewey Decimal System
- Summary of Steps in Essay-Writing
- Suggestions for Introductory Paragraphs
- Common Fallacies of Argument