

Table of Contents for Critical Thinking Book Two
Critical Thinking Books & Software

Chapter 1—Introduction to Uses and Misuses of Words

- Introduction
- Emotional Words and Phrases
- Words for Special Pleading
- Ambiguity and the "Slippery Word" Error
- Vague Sentences
- Inconsistent, Contradictory, and Hypocritical Statements
- Misleading Statements, Euphemisms, and Doublethink
- Meaningless Words and Gobbledegook
- Loaded Questions
- Chapter Review Problems for Class Discussion

Chapter 2—Logic without Quantified Statements

- Review
- If and Only If (IFF)
- Validity
- Proving Arguments Valid or Invalid
- Proving Arguments Valid or Invalid (continued)
- Tautologies
- More Word Substitutions
- Negations and Opposites
- Chapter Review Problems for Class Discussion

Chapter 3—Common Errors in Reasoning

- Review
- More About "Proof" by Selected Instances
- False Cause and Assumption Contrary to Fact
- Rationalization
- Whole to Part; Part to Whole
- More About Circular Reasoning
- Either-Or and its Opposite, Not Drawing the Line
- Sophistical Formula
- Non Sequitur
- Miscellaneous Reasoning Errors
- Chapter Review

Chapter 4—Techniques of Propaganda and Argument

- Review

- "Red Herring"
- Ad Hominem
- "Other Things are Worse"
- The Use of Authority
- Appeal to Emotions
- Appeals to Radicalism and Conservatism
- Chapter Review

Chapter 5—Probabilities of Truth and Falsity

- Introduction and Review
- Absolutely, Probably, and Possibly
- True or False Beyond a Reasonable Doubt

Chapter 6—Logic with Quantified Statements

- "All" and "No" Statements
- "Some" Statements
- Existence
- Quantifiers
- Negation of Quantified Statements
- Reversibility
- Validity using only "All" and "No" Statements
- Validity using only "Some" Statements
- Validity Using Mixed Quantifiers
- Using Euler Circles for Quantified Statements
- Validity and Euler Circles
- Using Common Sense
- Complex Statements
- Chapter Review Problems for Class Discussion

Chapter 7—Characteristics of Arguments

- Distinguishing Between Strong and Weak Arguments
- Which Side of the Fence?
- Recognizing Assumptions
- Distinguishing Between Fact and Opinion
- Chapter Review Problems for Class Discussion

Chapter 8—Arguments about Everyday Matters

- Recognizing Supporting Arguments
- Asking Questions About Arguments
- Finding and Refuting Arguments
- Chapter Review Problems for Class Discussion

Chapter 9—Solving Everyday Problems

- Brainstorming
- Many-Sided Everyday Problems

Bibliography

Glossary

Index