

The Covenantal Kingdom

A Brief Summary of the Biblical Argument for Postmillennialism

By Ralph Allan Smith

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction

Chapter One: The Biblical and Theological Issues

Defining the Issues

Three Positions

Two Theological Questions

Biblical Answer: The Victory of the Gospel

Matthew 25:18-20

Romans 11

Matthew 13

Daniel 2 and 7

Summary

Biblical Answer Second Coming and Resurrection

Teaching of Jesus

Teaching of Paul

Summary

Conclusion

Chapter Two: Interpreting Prophecy

Figurative Versus Literal Interpretation: The Wrong Paradigm

Creation Symbolism: The Biblical Paradigm

Creation Symbolism and Eschatology

Creation Symbolism and the Coming of Christ

Conclusion

Chapter Three: The Conflict of History

Pessimism: Jesus Loses in History

Amillennial Pessimism

Optimistic Amillennialism?

Premillennial Pessimism

Biblical Optimism: Satan Defeated, the World Converted

The Defeat of Satan in the New Testament

The Salvation of the World

1. The Father's Love

2. The Son's Atonement

3. The Spirit's Power

Summary

Conclusion

Chapter Four: God's Covenantal Kingdom

What Is a Covenant?

How Important Is the Covenant?

What Is the Essence of the Covenant?

Covenant and Eschatology

The Creation mandate and the Covenants

The Christ and the Covenants

1. The Abrahamic Covenant Fulfilled in Christ's Seed

2. The Davidic Covenant Fulfilled in Christ's Ascension

3. The New Covenant Fulfilled in Christ's Death and Resurrection

Jesus' Covenantal Rule

Covenantal Sanctions and the Growth of the Kingdom

Conclusion

Epilogue: Christ's Call to Build His Kingdom

Appendix One: Covenants and Dispensations

Appendix Two: A Neglected Millennial Passage From St. Paul 19:11-16

Appendix Three: Understanding The Book of Revelation

Appendix: Four: A Test Case: Revelation 19:11-16