

Volume 5: Advanced Spelling and Vocabulary for Students of Literature

Using the same auditory, frequency, and mastery approach as The Phonetic Zoo, this program helps students of Literature master the spelling and vocabulary of 96 words. With four lessons of 24 words per lesson, this program is intended for self-directed study. Every eight words a bit of literature, poetry, or humor is read for your relaxation and enjoyment.

Audio CD Contents:

Track One: Instructions

Track Two: Lesson One 24 Words

Sample Words: analysis, apothegm, burlesque, caricature

Track Three: Lesson One Corrections

Track Four: Lesson Two 24 Words

Sample Words: symposium, tableau, tautology, vaudeville

Track Five: Lesson Two Corrections

Track Six: Lesson Three 24 Words

Sample Words: anachronism, faux pas, gauche, harangue, hyperbole

Track Seven: Lesson Three Corrections

Track Eight: Lesson Four 24 Words

Sample words: metaphor, colloquial, soliloquy, doggerel

Track Nine: Lesson Four Corrections

Andrew Pudewa: Mr. Pudewa authored Teaching Writing: Structure and Style, Linguistic Development through Poetry Memorization and co-authored the Excellence in Spelling materials. He currently travels and teaches throughout the world addressing issues relating to teaching, writing, thinking, spelling, and music with clarity and insight, practical experience, and humor.

James B. Webster: Author of Blended Structure & Style in Composition and co-author of the Excellence in Spelling materials, Dr. Webster holds B.A. and M.A. degrees from UBC and a Ph.D. from London University (England). He taught at the elementary level for five years, secondary for six, and university for 31 years—twelve in Africa. He holds the British Columbia Superior Certificate of Education.

Literature, poetry, or humor read by Julie Walker

Other Volumes in This Series

Volume 1 Bible & Theology

Volume 2 Greece & Rome

Volume 3 Government & Law

Volume 4 Business & Economics

Volume 6 Health & Science

Volume 7 SAT/ACT

Phone: 800.856.5815

Fax: 603.925.5123

Web: www.excellenceinwriting.com