

College without Compromise
An Encouraging Guide to Starting Early, Finishing Economically, and Protecting Your Homeschool Vision
Scott & Kris Wightman

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Foreword

Acknowledgments

Section I - Introduction

1. Finishing Strong

Section II - Always Keeping the End in Mind

2. Considering a Course
3. Faith, Purity, Character & Servanthood
4. Help Wanted: Must Be Willing to Work
5. Providing for a Single Income Household
6. Preparing to be a Well-Equipped Helpmeet

Section III - Practical Considerations

7. Cost of College, Stewardship & Debt
8. Inefficiency of Classroom Learning
9. More Focused Training
10. Post-Graduate Work

Section IV - What are the Tools?

11. Credit by Examination
12. Ways to Prepare for the Exams
13. Dual Enrollment
14. A Few More Tools
15. Who Offers This Type of Degree Program?
16. Blending Independent & Traditional Approaches
17. Some Other Practical Things We've Learned

Section V - Multigenerational Faithfulness

18. Resetting What's Normal

Appendix

"A Father's Resolutions"

References