

The Feminization of American Culture
By Ann Douglas

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgements

Preface to the 1998 Noonday Edition

Introduction: The Legacy of American Victorianism: The Meaning of Little Eva

PART ONE

The Sentimentalization of Status

1. Clerical Disestablishment
2. Feminine Disestablishment
3. Ministers and Mothers: Changing and Exchanging Roles

PART TWO

The Sentimentalization of Creed and Culture

4. Loss of Theology: From Dogma to Fiction
5. The Escape From History: The Static Imagination
6. The Domestication of Death: The Posthumous Congregation
7. The Periodical Press: Arena For Hostility

PART THREE

Protest: Case Studies in American Romanticism

8. Margaret Fuller and the Disavowal of Fiction
9. Herman Melville and the Revolt Against the Reader

Epilogue

Appendix A: Alphabetical Listing of Women and Ministers

Appendix B: Chronological Listing of Women and Ministers

Notes Index