

Postmillennialism

An Eschatology of Hope

By Keith A. Mathison

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgments

Introduction

Part One: Hermeneutical Considerations

1. Presuppositions and Definitions
2. Covenant Theology

Part Two: Historical Considerations

3. Patristic and Medieval Eschatology
4. Reformation and Modern Eschatology

Part Three: Old Testament Considerations

5. The Pentateuch and the Historical Books
6. The Psalms
7. The Prophets

Part Four: New Testament Considerations

8. The Gospels and Acts
9. The Epistles
10. The Book of Revelation

Part Five: Theological Considerations

11. Reformed Theology and Eschatology
12. The Inadequacy of Premillennialism and Amillennialism
13. The Answer of Postmillennialism

Part Six: Objections to Postmillennialism

14. Theological and Practical Objections
15. Biblical Objections

Conclusion

Appendix 1: The Seventy Weeks

Appendix 2: 1 and 2 Thessalonians

Appendix 3: A Brief Critique of Full Preterism

Endnotes

For Further Reading

Index of Scripture