

Evangelical Ethics
Issues Facing the Church Today
By John Jefferson Davis

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface

Chapter 1: Dimensions of Decision Making

Cases and Issues
Biblical Authority
Empirical and Deliberative Elements
Cases of Conflicting Obligation
Christian Ethics and Law in a Pluralistic Society

Chapter 2: Contraception

From Ancient Times to Present
Modern Methods of Contraception
Moral Dimensions of Contraception
Related Issues

Chapter 3: Reproductive Technologies

Artificial Insemination
Surrogate Mothers: Wombs for Rent
Sex Selection
In Vitro Fertilization

Chapter 4: Divorce and Remarriage

Historical Trends
The Biblical Data
Summary and Conclusions

Chapter 5: Homosexuality

Historical and Anthropological Perspectives
Medical Aspects
The Witness of Scripture
Theological and Pastoral Issues
Homosexuality and the Law

Chapter 6: Abortion

Historical and Legal Background
Medical Aspects
The Psychological Dimension
Biblical, Theological, and Ethical Considerations

Chapter 7: Infanticide and Euthanasia

Infanticide
Death, Dying, and Euthanasia

Chapter 8: Capital Punishment

History and the Law
The Teaching of Scripture
Philosophical and Pragmatic Considerations

Chapter 9: Civil Disobedience and Revolution

Civil Disobedience
Revolution and the Christian Conscience

Chapter 10: War and Peace

War in Human History
The Morality of War: The Pre-Atomic Era
War and Peace in a Nuclear Age

Chapter 11: Environmental Ethics: History, Issues, and Theology

Historical Perspectives on the Environmental Movement
Current Environmental Ethics
Biblical Foundations of Environmental Movement

Chapter 12: The Genetic Revolution

Historical Background
The Issues and the Terminology
Theological and Ethical Framework
Reflections on the Issues

Note
Index of Scripture
Index of Persons
Index of Subjects