

Responsible Conduct

By J. Douma

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface to the Tenth Dutch Edition

1. Morality and Ethics
 - Everybody Deals with Them
 - Terminology
 - Relevance
 - Subdivisions Within Ethics
 - Metaethics

2. The Definition of Christian Ethics
 - The Purpose of This Chapter
 - Human Conduct
 - In Terms of the Aspect of Good and Evil
 - Properly Motivated Conduct
 - Virtuous Conduct
 - Purposeful Conduct
 - Utilitarian or Deontological Ethics?
 - Christian Ethics
 - Biblical or Christian Ethics

3. The Scope of Christian Ethics
 - Why a Different Definition?
 - Does It Include the Environment?
 - Dogmatics and Ethics
 - Christian and Philosophical Ethics
 - With Universal and with Christian Arguments

4. The Use of the Holy Spirit
 - Difficulties
 - Hermeneutics
 - Biblicism
 - Transition with Scriptures
 - Responsible Appeal to Scripture
 - Using our Understanding
 - Be Careful for Motifs
 - Maturity and Discernment

5. The Ten Commandments
 - Core Commandments
 - Is the Church Still at Sinai?
 - The Law: Not a Way of Salvation, but a Norm for Living
 - The Depth of the Commandments
 - Threefold Function

6. Christian Morality
 - Once More: Ethics and Morality
 - We Do many Things the Same
 - A Different Interior
 - A Different Exterior
 - Christian Lifestyle

7. Love
 - Love and Situation Ethics
 - Yeast and Dough
 - What You Wish Others to Do to You...
 - Self-love
 - Three Forms of Love

8. Conscience
 - An Ancient Distinction
 - What is the Conscience?
 - A Good Conscience
 - Dealing with Appeals to Conscience

9. Are These Adiaphora?
 - The Issue
 - A Term from the Stoics
 - Two Disputes About Adiaphora
 - No Adiaphora
 - Freedom from and Freedom For
 - Don't restrict It to Leisure
 - The Permissible
 - Once More: Discerning What Really Matters

10. Is There a Conflict of Duties?
 - What Is the Issue?
 - Not All Commandments Are Absolute
 - Tragedy
 - Mendacium Officiosum
 - The Other Examples
 - Carefulness

11. Compromise
 - Accepting Less Than We Would Like
 - Some Examples
 - Characteristics of Genuine Ethical Compromise
 - Limits
 - Does Compromise Render One Guilty?

12. Casuistry
 - From the General to the Specific
 - Casuistry's Bad Name
 - Protestant Casuistry
 - Once More: The Objections
 - Moral counsel

13. Spirituality
 - Spirituality and Ethics
 - An Ancient Subject: Ascetics
 - Why Did It Fall into Disuse?
 - Spirituality: The Indispensable Context

Bibliography

Index of Scripture

Index of Subjects and Names