

Institutes of Biblical Law Volume I

By R. J. Rushdoony

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface

Introduction: The Importance of the Law

1. The Validity of Biblical Law
2. The Law as Revelation and Treaty
3. The Direction of the Law

I. The First Commandment

1. The First Commandment and the Shema Israel
2. The Undivided Word
3. God Verses Moloch
4. The Law of Covenant Membership
5. The Law as Power and Discrimination

II. The Second Commandment

1. The Lawful Approach to God
2. The Throne of Law
3. The Alter and Capital Punishment
4. Sacrifices and Responsibility
5. Holiness and Law
6. Law as Warfare
7. Law and Equality

III. The Third Commandment

1. The Negativism of the Law
2. Swearing and Revolution
3. The Oath and Society
4. Swearing and Worship
5. The Oath and Authority
6. The Name of God

IV. The Fourth Commandment

1. The Sign of Freedom
2. The Sabbath and Life
3. The Sabbath and Work
4. The Sabbath and Authority
5. The Sabbath and Law

V. The Fifth Commandment

1. The Authority of the Family

2. The Promise of Life
3. The Economics of the Family
4. Education and the Family
5. The Family and Delinquency
6. The Principle of Authority
7. The Family and Authority
8. The Holy Family
9. The Limitation of Man's Authority

VI. The Sixth Commandment

1. "Thou Shalt Not Kill"
2. The Death Penalty
3. Origins of the State: Its Prophetic Office
4. "To Make Alive"
5. Hybridization and Law
6. Abortion
7. Responsibility and Law
8. Restitution or Restoration
9. Military Law and Production
10. Taxation
11. Love and the Law
12. Coercion
13. Quarantine Laws
14. Dietary Rules
15. Christ and the Law
16. Work
17. Amalek
18. Amalek and Violence
19. Violence as Presumption
20. Social Inheritance: Landmarks

VII: The Seventh Commandment

1. Marriage
2. Marriage and Man
3. Marriage and Woman
4. Nakedness
5. Family Law
6. Marriage and Monogamy
7. Incest
8. The Levirate
9. Sex and Crime
10. Sex and Religion
11. Adultery
12. Divorce
13. The Family as Trustee
14. Homosexuality

15. Uncovering the Springs
16. The Mediatorial Works of the Law
17. The Transvestite
18. Bestiality
19. The Architecture of Life
20. Faithfulness

VIII: The Eighth Commandment

1. Dominion
2. Theft
3. Restitution
4. Liability of the Bystander
5. Money and Measure
6. Usury
7. Responsibility
8. Stealing Freedom
9. Landmarks and Land
10. The Virgin Birth and Property
11. Fraud
12. Eminent Domain
13. Labor Laws
14. Robbing God
15. Prison
16. Lawful Wealth
17. Restitution to God
18. The Rights of Strangers, Widows, and Orphans
19. Injustice as Robbery
20. Theft and Law

IX. The Ninth Commandment

1. Tempting God
2. Sanctification and the Law
3. The False Prophet
4. The Witness of the False Prophet
5. Corroboration
6. Perjury
7. Jesus as The Witness
8. False Witness
9. False Freedom
10. The Lying Tongue
11. Slander Within Marriage
12. Slander
13. Slander as Theft
14. "Every Idle Word"
15. Trials by Ordeals and the Law of Nature
16. Judges

17. The Responsibility of Judges and Rulers
18. The Court
19. The Procedure of the Court
20. The Judgment of the Court
21. Perfection

X. The Tenth Commandment

1. Covetousness
2. The Law in Force
3. Special Privilege
4. Offense Against Our Neighbor
5. The System

XI. The Promise of Law

1. The Use of Law
2. The Law and the Ban
3. The curse and the Blessing
4. The Unlimited Liability Universe

XII. The Law in the Old Testament

1. God and King
2. The Law and the Prophets
3. Natural and Supernatural Law
4. The Law as Direction and Life
5. The Law and the Covenant

XIII. The Law in the New Testament

1. Christ and the Law
2. The Woman Taken in Adultery
3. Antinomianism Attacked
4. The Transfiguration
5. The Kingdom of God
6. The Tribute Money
7. The Cultural Mandate
8. The Law in Acts and the Epistles

XIV. The Church

1. The Meaning of Eldership
2. The Office of Elder in the Church
3. The Christian Passover
4. Circumcision and Baptism
5. The Priesthood of All Believers
6. Discipline
7. Rebukes and Excommunication
8. Power and Authority
9. Peace

XV. Notes on Law in Western Society

Appendices

1. The New Testament as Law
2. The Implications of 1 Samuel 8
3. Stewardship, Investment, and Usury: Financing the Kingdom of God – by Gary North
4. The Economics of Sabbath Keeping – by Gary North
5. In Defense of Biblical Bribery – by Gary North
6. Subversion and the Tithe
7. Notes

Scripture Texts

Index