

Basic History of the United States

Clarence B. Carson

Volume 3. The Sections and the Civil War 1826-1877

Table of Contents

1. Introduction

2. The Rise of Sectionalism

Regional Differences and Changes
The Election of 1824
The Adams Administration
The Emergence of Two Parties

3. Jacksonian Democracy

The People's Choice
The Meaning of Jacksonian Democracy Jackson's Administrations
    a. Replacing Government Employees
    b. Webster-Hayne Debates
    c. Maysville Road Bill
    d. The Removal of the Indians
    e. The Nullification Controversy
    f. The Bank Controversy

4. Americans at Work

The Voluntary Way
The Family Farm
The Factory System
The Plantation System

5. Romanticism and Reform

Developing an American Literature
The Transcendentalists
Southern Literature
New Churches and Religious Enthusiasm
The Reformation of Society
    a. Utopian Communities
    b. Public School Movement
    c. Abolitionists

6. Westward Expansion

Whigs and Democrats Transportation Linking East and West
    a. Era of Turnpikes and Roads
    b. Era of the Canals

c. The Coming of the Railroads

Territorial Expansion

a. Texas and Annexation

b. Acquiring Oregon

c. Mexican War

7. The Coming of the Civil War

The Last Major Efforts at Compromise

a. The Compromise of 1850

b. The Kansas-Nebraska Act

Frustration at the North

a. Changes in the North

b. Political Ascendancy of the South

c. Frustrating Developments

Fears at the South

The Election of Lincoln and Secession of the South

8. The Civil War

The Sinews of War—North and South

The Strategy of the War

Early Stages of the War 1861-1863

Behind the Lines

Fall of the Confederacy

9. Reconstruction

Devastation at the South

Presidential Reconstruction

Congressional Reconstruction

Constitutional Reconstruction

Reconstruction Politics

The End of Reconstruction

Notes

Glossary

Suggestions for Additional Reading

Index