

What credits am I able to award my high school student if he uses BFB?

Here is the breakdown for awarding credit for each of the high school level studies:

Early American and World History Jr. High

(appropriate for 7th-9th grade, covers 1450-1870)

- 1 History Credit
- 1/2 Literature Credit

Ancient History Sr. High

(pre-history - 700AD)

- 1 Ancient World History Credit
- 1 Classical Literature Credit
- 1/2 Geography Credit

Medieval History Sr. High

(1200AD-1600AD)

- 1 Old World History Credit
- 1 British Literature Credit

U.S. and World History Sr. High

(2-year program, covers 1800-1990)

Parts I and II (Year 1)

- 1 American History Credit
- 1 American Literature Credit

Parts III and IV (Year 2)

- 1 Modern World History Credit
- 1 Literature Credit (general survey)

You will need to supplement the literature aspect of these programs with a language arts program that includes writing and grammar.
