

By This Standard

By Greg Bahnsen

TABLE OF CONTENTS

PROLOGUE by Gary North

FOREWORD

INTRODUCTION

1. Specification of Purpose and Position

Part I: THE AUTHORITY OF GOD'S LAW

A. The All-Encompassing Standard of Scripture

2. God's Word is Our Norm
3. The Entire Bible is Today's Standard
4. The Scope of True Obedience

B. Cardinal Doctrines of the Faith

5. The Covenant's Uniform Standard of Right & Wrong
6. The Father's Unchanging Holiness
7. The Son's Model Righteousness
8. The Spirit's Dynamic for Living

C. Motivational and Consequential Perspectives

9. A Motivational Ethic Endorses the Law
10. A Consequential Ethic Endorses the Law

D. Old Testament Law in the New Testament Age

11. The New Testament Explicitly Supports the Law
12. New Testament Ethical Themes Endorse the Law
13. New Testament Moral Judgments Endorse the Law
14. The Categories of God's Law

E. Summary of Old and New Testament Views on God's Law

15. Continuity Between the Covenants on the Law
16. Discontinuity Between the Covenants of the Law

F. The Functions of God's Law

17. God's Commandments are a Non-Legalistic Rule of Obedience
18. New Testament Opposition to the Abuse of God's Law
19. What the Law Cannot Do
20. What the Law Can and Should Do
21. The Traditional "Three Uses" of the Law

Part II: APPLICATION OF GOD'S LAW TO POLITICAL ETHICS

22. The Political Implications of the Comprehensive Gospel
23. Law and Political in Old Testament Israel
24. Law and Politics in Nations Around Israel
25. Law and Politics in the New Testament
26. Crime and Punishment
27. Church and State

Part III: ANTAGONISM TO GOD'S LAW

28. Autonomy and Antinomianism
29. Arguments Against the Law's General Validity
30. Arguments Against the Law's Political Use

CONCLUSION

31. The Authority of God's Law Today

GLOSSARY

INDEX

ADDITIONAL BOOKS