

Reading Between the Lines
A Christian Guide to Literature
By Gene Edward Veith, Jr.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgments

Preface

1. The Word and the Image: The Importance of Reading
2. Vicarious Experience and Vicarious Sin: The Importance of Criticism

THE FORMS OF LITERATURE

3. Nonfiction: The Art of Truth-Telling
4. Fiction: The Art of Story-Telling
5. Poetry: The Art of Singing

THE MODES OF LITERATURE

6. Tragedy and Comedy: The Literature of Damnation and Salvation
7. Realism: Literature as a Mirror
8. Fantasy: Literature as a Lamp

THE TRADITIONS OF LITERATURE

9. The Middle Ages and the Reformation: The Literature of Belief
10. The Enlightenment and Romanticism: The Literature of Nature and the Self
11. Modernism and Postmodernism: The Literature of Consciousness and Self-Consciousness
12. The Makers of Literature: Writers, Publishers, and Readers

Appendix: A Reading List

Notes

Scripture Index

General Index