

The Civil War Between the States, Volume I, Causes
by Tom Spencer, Logos High School

Table of Contents

- Lesson #1: Depiction of a Battle
- Lesson #2: What Shall We Call This War?
- Lesson #3: The Significance of this War
- Lesson #4: Identifying the Causes of the War
- Lesson #5: God's Sovereignty in History
- Lesson #6: The Bible and Slavery
- Lesson #7: Analysis of Pro-Slavery Arguments
- Lesson #8: Analysis of Anti-Slavery Arguments
- Lesson #9: Selections from the Slave Narrative Collection
- Lesson #10: State's Rights, Federalism, and the Social Compact Theory
- Lesson #11: The Historical Uses of States' Rights
- Lesson #12: Slavery and the Constitution
- Lesson #13: Slavery and the Expansion of the Union
- Lesson #14: The Nullification Crisis
- Lesson #15: The Story of the Preacher and The Liberator
- Lesson #16: The Wilmot Proviso
- Lesson #17: The Compromise of 1850
- Lesson #18: Questions on Clay, Calhoun, and Webster
- Lesson #19: The Significance of the Fugitive Slave Law
- Lesson #20: Uncle Tom's Cabin
- Lesson #21: The Kansas-Nebraska Act
- Lesson #22: The Dred Scott Case
- Lesson #23: The Lecompton Constitution and the Lincoln-Douglas Debates
- Lesson #24: John Brown
- Lesson #25: The Election of 1860
- Lesson #26: The Crittenden Compromise
- Lesson #27: Secession of the Lower South
- Lesson #28: Decision about Ft. Sumter